

OBLIGATORY FOR FOREIGN PhD STUDENTS WITH A LEVEL IN FRENCH UNDER THE CECR B1

Objectives

- Learn French basics, how to have a simple conversation with people ;
- Understand French grammar, in oral and written situations ;
- Basic knowledge about French culture and habits.

Content

- How to write and understand texts on various, concrete and abstracts topics
- How to understand and generate a simple speech about basic topics of everyday life, recent actuality or abstract topics

About your teachers

The "Centre de Français Langue Étrangère et Universitaire en Région Auvergne (FLEURA)" [French Foreign Language University Center of Auvergne] dispense French classes for students & learners coming from any country. Foreign public who want to learn or improve their knowledge, skills or French culture and habits are welcomed in Initial tracks (young public) or Returning tracks (older public, evening classes).

The FLEURA center is also a certified center for DELF / DALF and DCL.

UNIVERSITÉ
Clermont Auvergne
CENTRE FLEURA

Register in ADUM here

Methods

- Levels groups
- Small group work in class, individual work in class and at home
- Multiple supports (FLE methods, grammar books and extract from radio, tv shows and news brief, internet and french papers)
- Oral communication and "in action" working method

Modality

Language : French

(teachers speak about two or three more languages in order to help you)

Target audience : 1st Year PhD students with no/weak level in French

Prerequisite : non-french speaking PhD students (level between the CECR A0 and B1)

Click here to learn more about CECR level

Teachers : teachers from the FLEURA center

Duration : 60 hours

5h/week between January and April

Maximum number of participants : 72 places
18 in each level groups

Validation : 4 modules

